The "Destination of Excellence" label, created on May 1, 2024, is intended to replace "Qualité Tourisme". It takes up the essentials of the "Qualité Tourisme" system, in particular the guarantee of the high level of quality of the reception, and reinforces the level of requirement in terms of eco-responsibility and information for the disabled public regarding the accessibility of the services offered. It is managed by Atout France.

The Aire-sur-l'Adour Community Tourist Office must obtain the label before October 2025.

OUR GUIDES

Accompanied by Marie our tour guide, Manon our future accompanying guide, Camille our bullfighting enthusiast and all the other actors, discover and learn the history of our emblematic places.

Village festivals

In our country, living together is not just an expression. It is illustrated on a daily basis, particularly from spring to autumn, during the big season of festivals and ferias. They can be found in all the villages and each has its own particularities. However, there are a few things in common: large meals at lunchtime and in the evening, live music with local bands, games, rides and entertainment for all ages, competitions, parades, a few bodegas to hydrate, free shows, popular balls and of course, one or more Landes races, the “national” sport of Landes and Gers.

A TOUR IN AIRE-SUR-L'ADOUR

We start with a stroll along the banks of the Adour, enjoying the view of our magnificent arenas. Then, head to the city center, on a treasure hunt: the old Carmelite monastery and the Saint-Jean-Baptiste cathedral, which are real little wonders! If you are there on a Tuesday or Saturday, a visit to the market is ideal for stocking up on gourmet delights.

We leave the center to climb to the heights, like a pilgrim on the road to Santiago de Compostela. On the way, pass under the grain market and admire its breathtaking framework. After a well-deserved climb, you arrive in front of the jewel of the city: the Sainte-Quitterie church, which even has its own little UNESCO badge! Enjoy a guided tour to explore the dazzling crypt and its white marble sarcophagus.

ON THE PATHS OF EUGÉNIE-LES-BAINS

For a dream day, dive into this spa resort and let time fly by like a good old movie! We start with a stroll in the English gardens of the municipal park. Climb behind the fountain to capture the most beautiful view of the village! And guess what? This fountain represents the majestic Adour River! If you are there during the flower season, a little tour of the rose garden is a must to delight yourself with these captivating fragrances! At the end of the village, the Gaston Larrieu museum awaits you to admire the painter's works, but be careful, check the opening hours! And what about the thermal baths? They are hidden on the other side of the village, in the peaceful park of the palace "les Près d'Eugénie". A true sanctuary of tranquility where good restaurants line up, all you have to do is choose your feast!

STROLLING IN SAINT-LOUBOUER PASSING THROUGH VIELLE-TURSAN

Here are two villages that are full of charm and juicy stories!

We start our escapade in the medieval village of Saint-Loubouer. It is impossible to miss the Maubourguet gate that shouts "Welcome!" at the entrance to the village. Stroll along the Grand-rue and let yourself be amazed by the vestiges of yesteryear: the old hotel of the Barons de Nogues with its Renaissance gate, the old town hall with its ogival entrance, the medieval porch that was the pride of the town, the abbey and the canons' courtyard. Then there is the church that, once a monastery and abbey, was transformed into a more modest church after a few renovations. Little scoop: during recent excavations, a Merovingian sarcophagus was unearthed! Follow the "washhouse" sign and take a wooded path to discover it!

Once back in the car, head for the village of Vielle-Tursan! Start at the parking lot of the balcony of the town hall, where, on a clear day, you will be dazzled by the view of the majestic Pyrenees. Take the path on the right and you will come across one of the most beautiful wash houses in the region, where women used to indulge in the famous "bugade". On the way back up, pass in front of the arenas, an emblematic place of the Landes with its Landes races that make the hearts of its inhabitants beat faster. The visit ends in front of the Saint-Jean-Baptiste church. Look up and admire the original chevet of the church. Can you guess the 7 deadly sins?

Few words

GANADERIA

The ganaderia refers to the breeding place where the cows for the Landes races and the bulls for the bullfights come from. The breeder is called a ganadero.

COURSE LANDAISE

The coursayres confront cows called coursières, raised by ganaderos. Each farm has its own cuadrilla. The different actors are: the écarteurs, who wait for the cow before dodging it at the last moment and the sauteurs who wait for the cow and execute a jump over it.

CORRIDA

A bullfight begins with a paseo: the parade of all the actors. The fight is then divided into three parts: the tercio de pique, two picadors face the bull, the tercio de banderillas, banderilleros place banderillas on the bull. Finally, during the third tercio, the matador performs a faena with his muleta. He then finishes with the estocade.

The Micro Z'Aventure “Adu les Landais” opens from Wednesday, April 9 to Monday, November 11, 2025!

With the neighbors, we have created a micro adventure allowing the discovery of Gascon culture over several days. Your mission: follow the road book to live a geolocated adventure, thwart the virtual quest, unlock new routes, unearth mystery objects and find the ultimate treasure!

The Landais have invited the Poiz to participate in a great festive and sporting meeting in a legendary arena in the Landes. Discover the local traditions of the inland Landes with the objective of finding the essential elements for the formation of the Poiz club which brings together athletes and bon vivants and reach the arenas in time for the opening of the festival!
